

I am a Professional Truck Driver. I listen to XM radio every daythere is no coverage of radio out on the road in most of the southwest
There is a safety factor in that with XM i don't have to change the channel every hour to get a new station if there is one and spend 10 min. looking at the radio not the road
please dont let greedy people take away my enjoyment thanks

David R. Coats